The Denver Polo Club and Cottonwood Riding Club are home to all types of equestrians! Join us for this weekend where we Celebrate all things horses! You can participate in one of our great Hunter/Jumper classes.

Saturday June 1 at 2:00

We will begin our $5,000 3' Hunter Derby! Course is Michael Roy Curtis from California! Judge is Randy Henry from Castle Rock Colorado. The course will be on a pristine polo field with natural jumps, fun derby challenges and 3'6" options.

Class fee is all inclusive $600

Sunday June 2, at 2:00

We will host our second annual $20,000 Celebration Grand Prix! This 1.2m class will be set on the same polo fields! No worries about bad footing! This turf is designed for fast speeds and tight turns! Course designer is Michael Roy Curtis from California and Randy Henry from Castle Rock Colorado.

Class fee is all inclusive $750

All riders are encouraged to come Friday May 31 for a welcome class (included) and to enjoy an evening party with polo lessons and to hang out and enjoy the great space.

Things we need!

- Health Certificate (within 10 days) and Negative Coggins test (within a year)
- Check for full fees, Made out to Denver Polo Club
- We need to know if you need a stall we have limited space and stalls are reserved for riders with multiple horses from out of state.
- Each rider will be required to fill out a short registration form
- A happy attitude and smiling face. This is a spectator event! Please come and have fun!

Please visit DenverPoloClub.com for a complete list of activities for the weekend. Saturday will not only have the $5000 hunter Derby but also a PBR rodeo and the Celebration Cup polo semifinals. Sunday will start with Celebration finals and then go right into the $20,000 Grand Prix. We will have vendors and food trucks and cabanas are available if your family wants to join in. It is like no show you have been to before!
